

Computers in Everyday Life - Lesson 5.2 Formative Assessment

- 1) What is an example of a computer? Select all that apply.
 - a) Analog clock
 - b) Lawnmower
 - c) Calculator
 - d) Cell Phone

- 2) What are ways that a farmer could use computers in their day? Select all that apply.
 - a) Repairing fences
 - b) Weather forecasting
 - c) Tracking seeds and livestock
 - d) Cooking a farm-to-table meal

- 3) What limitations might there be for people living in remote villages?
 - a) Access to the internet
 - b) A low amount of pollution
 - c) Quieter neighborhoods
 - d) Ease of finding replacement parts

- 4) What does the acronym GPIO mean?
 - a) Generic Programmable Input Output
 - b) General Purpose Input Output
 - c) Graphical Processing Interface Output
 - d) Global Peripheral Interface Option

- 5) List 2 advantages and 2 disadvantages of using a calculator instead of writing down the math problems on paper.

- 6) Select one occupation and list several ways a computer is used in their job.