

Environmental Impact of Computers - Lesson 5.3 Formative Assessment

- 1) What is the definition of recycling?
 - a) The process of taking used materials or products and turning them into new ones instead of throwing them away.
 - b) The process of organizing items in alphabetical order.
 - c) The act of purchasing new products to replace old ones.
 - d) The practice of storing unused items in a closet for future use.

- 2) Explain the different stages of the life cycle of a computer and explain the environmental impact.

- 3) What are 3 ways computer users can reduce the impact on our environment?